

DRESSING IN STEEL

(AND YOUR LITTLE HORSE TOO)

Dirk Breiding, Assistant Curator, Department of Arms and Armor
Jeffrey D. Wasson, Armorer

An exciting live demonstration of armor-making is followed by a multimedia talk on how armor worked, and on which occasions it would be worn by boys and men (and sometimes even women).

Saturday, January 21, at 3:00 • $15

Tickets on sale now metmuseum.org/tickets, 212.570.3949, or visit our Great Hall Box Office

Close Helmet with Mask Visor (detail); Kolman Helmschmid, German, Augsburg, 1471–1532; Steel, embossed, etched, and gilt; Rogers Fund, 1904